On March 24, 2000, the Commission placed the application on public notice,<sup>1</sup> and sixty (60) days later, discontinuance authority was automatically granted. Applicant states, however, that it failed to consummate its sale with Citizens, and that as a result, it never exercised its authority to discontinue service.

3. Pursuant to section 1.748 of the Commission's rules,<sup>2</sup> Applicant requests that its application be withdrawn, and states that if it subsequently enters into an agreement with

Citizens or with any other carrier to sell any or all of these exchanges, it will file a new application under section 63.71 of the Commission's rules.<sup>3</sup> Accordingly, Verizon's application is withdrawn, and the discontinuance authority associated with the application is revoked.

4. Accordingly, pursuant to sections 1, 4(1), and 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 151, 154(1), and 214, and sections 0.91, 0.291, 1.748 and 63.71 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291, 1.748, and 63.71, IT IS ORDERED that Verizon's request to withdraw its application to discontinue domestic telecommunications IS GRANTED.
